

What Day Is It?

We are in that week between Christmas and New Years where our schedules are all a mess. If you're like me, in the last week you've had both a day where you stayed up too late and a day where you got up too early. You've had a day where you tried to do too much, and a day where you did too little (if there is such a thing).

As I look ahead to next week with the hope that we can get back into a routine, I wanted to remind you of the New Keystone events for next year. Our first event is less than a week away!!

Friday, January 3rd, we will visit Debrand Fine Chocolates. Meet at St Joe UMC at 12:00pm if you'd like to carpool. Our tour starts at 12:30pm. Check out the details below, or see our WEBSITE for more information on this event and many more.

INDOOR WALKING
at St Joe UMC

Looking for a way to stay active in the cold? Maybe you're setting a New Year's Resolution to get more exercise. You are welcome to walk laps at the church, Monday - Thursday, 9am-1pm). We have maps to help you measure your distance and a tracker to log your miles. There's even awards as you hit different milestones!

Pictured above are Marjorie Haecker and Kay Musgrove receiving their 100-mile medals from Bob Scott. They have been faithfully walking all year and have been a joy to have around the church. CONGRATS on your achievement!

This is a great way to introduce someone to our church. Just invite them to walk with you! You may even meet new members of the Keystone group or the church staff while you are here.

Save the Date - Thursday January 23rd

Our plan for 2025 is to host an educational event each month at the church. We are lining up a wide variety of topics and speakers now.

Mark your calendars for the 4th Thursday evening of each month, starting January 23rd at 6pm. More info to come soon!
